

It's a BOGO!!

It's our favorite time of the year at Jones...

It's BOGO Book Fair time!

We're doing things a little differently things Spring, and hosting our book fair VIRTUALLY!

It's so simple!

Between MAY 14 and MAY 27, just go to:

www.scholastic.com/bf/Jones (link available on Google Classroom!)

Scroll down and click on “Shop the Store”

There you will find a virtual setup just like your students would enjoy in the Jones library.

- ❖ Add items to your cart,
- ❖ checkout like you would at any other online retailer, and
- ❖ have items shipped directly to your home or address of your choosing.

All orders of $25 or more ship FREE!

AND REMEMBER:

This is the buy-one-get-one Book Fair. So, for every item you add to your cart, go ahead and add another item of equal or lesser value for absolutely free!

Thank you for supporting our school and the wonderful programs that Scholastic is able to offer our library thru profits earned from our book fair.

We hope you feel some #BookJoy after shopping and reading!
